NEW POLICY OF AMERICAN ARMY IS MADE KNOWN

Secretary Opposes Effort to Destroy Efficiency

(By The Associated Press)
WASHINGTON, Jan. 23.—Policies and activities of the war department with reference to the land forces of the country are reviewed in a letter to the chairman of the senate and house military committees made public today by Secretary Weeks. The letter which is accepted by some officials as revealing for the first time since the armament conference met the administration's policy for future treatment of the army is regarded as showing that while the secretary recognizes the demand for economy and has already effected savings aggregating millions of dollars he opposes any effort to destroy either the efficiency of the army or its organization along existing lines.

The department has initiated a careful study, the letter says, "of the influence that modern scientific developments will have upon the technique of warfare, especially with regard to aviation, gas and tanks."

"By a methodical study of the widely divergent views of professional soldiers it is hoped to reduce a reasonable doctrine to govern methods of training."

The letter refers to development of the army of the United States in its three components, the regular forces, the national guard and the organized reserves. Perplexing problems involved in the reduction of the regular strength to 150,000 enlisted men have been met it is said, and organization of units allowed to the national guard has progressed. In eighteen national guard divisions, an average of 65 per cent completed units is reported. The report of the organized reserves, the letter adds, shows a strength of 2,900 reserve officers, assigned to units and 50,000 others available for assignment.

The regular troops will be used this summer for training 100,000 national guard, 10,000 reserve officers' training corps members, 20,000 reserve officers, 10,000 reserve enlisted men and 27,000 civilians.

For purposes of further training of the national guard by the states the letter announces the department's decision to offer to the states, under revocable licenses the war time cantonments and real estate at Camp Lee, Va., Camp Jackson, S. C., Camp Dodge, Iowa, Camp Pike, Arkansas and Camp Grant, Illinois.

It is planned to retain Camp Meade, Maryland, Camp Travis, Texas, Camp Lewis, Washington, practically in their present condition as permanent stations of the regular army infantry divisions.

Camp Devens, Mass., Camp Dix, New Jersey, Camp McClelland, Ala., and Camp Custer, Michigan, have been selected for training centers of the first, second, fourth and sixth corps areas respectively.

FIGHT BREAKS IN SENATE ON DEBT REFUNDING BILL

Democrats Oppose Granting Authority
to Commission

(By The Associated Press)
WASHINGTON, Jan. 23.—The fight of the allied debt refunding bill broke today in the senate with Senator McCumber, North Dakota, in charge of the measure and the Democrats opposing the proposed grant of authority to the debt commission to fix the higher when interest payments shall begin.

The first day's consideration of the measure saw only the completion of the opening statement by Senator McCumber who was subjected to a rapid cross-fire from the minority; but Republican leaders hope to press the bill to a vote by the end of the week.

Discussion today covered a wide range, including use of proceeds from the refunded bonds to pay the soldier bonus, the ability of the debtor nation to begin paying their interest and the plans of the administration with respect to the sale of some of the refunded obligations in the United States.

Pleading a broad authority for the commission in conducting the refunding negotiations, Senator McCumber said he could conceive of a situation in which it might be desirable to agree with a debtor nation to fix the interest rate on the bonds high enough to cover during the life of the bonds the accumulated interest. Such a plan was opposed by Senators Simmons and Lenroot. The former said Secretary Mellon had informed the finance committee that President Harding had approved this proposal as a means of making foreign bonds more readily saleable in the United States.

Not Available Until 1923.
Senator McCumber gave it as his opinion that none of the proceeds from the refunded foreign debt would be available for the soldier's bonus until within one year after next July 1, the date on which Republican leaders have said the bonus would be made effective. He thought that congress should provide some form of special taxation to cover bonus payments for the one year and then authorize the sale of a sufficient amount of the bonds to take care of succeeding yearly bonus expenses if the interest from the foreign debt should not prove sufficient.

Objecting to writing into the bill a provision fixing any definite time for beginning interest payments, Senator McCumber said that if the time limit were made three years, for instance, all of the debtor nations, irrespective of their ability to pay, would press for deferment of interest to the maximum period.

Pointing out that the secretary of treasury under the demand notes now held by the United States had authority to collect interest Senator Hitchcock, Democrat, Nebraska, suggested that there was no immediate necessity for the proposal legislation. Senator McCumber contended however, that the demand notes should be refunded with interest rates and other questions settled as to help stabilize economic conditions.

MAKE RUNS ON DUNKIRK BANK

(By The Associated Press)
DUNKIRK, N. Y., Jan. 23.—A run was made today on the Merchants' National Bank due to unfounded rumors that gained circulation through the city. Virtually all the accounts withdrawn were those of foreigners, the smaller depositors of the bank. Every depositor who asked for his money was paid all.

The Marine Trust company of Buffalo sent $220,000 here. At the sight of the large pile of money many of the depositors who had withdrawn their money redemitted it before the closing of the banking hours.

Her loss of weight was 28 pounds. Roche is said to be a student of physical culture and fasting.

Vote is Light in Con Con Election BRIEFS

(By The Associated Press)
SPRINGFIELD, Ill., Jan. 23.—Upon the vote in scattered precincts, returns from which straggled in slowly tonight apparently hinged the result of today's special election to fill the vacancy in the constitutional convention from the Fortieth Senatorial District embracing the counties of Christian, Shelbyville, Fayette and Cumberland.

Neither Edward E. Adams, Republican of Taylorville, nor Francis M. Quinn, Democrat of Vandalia, leading candidates for the seat made vacant by the resignation of F. R. Dove, a Democrat, would concede the election until the official returns showed the winner. Interest in the extremely tight vote became intense throughout the district when incomplete unofficial returns left the result in doubt.

Twenty-nine of the thirty-two precincts in Christian county gave Adams a plurality of 468 votes. Reports from Vandalia gave Quinn a lead of three hundred in Fayette county, while Democrats claimed Shelby county for Quinn by about 150 votes. Late returns from Cumberland county indicated that Quinn would carry the county by about twenty five votes. Quinn adherents in the southern end of the district claimed late tonight that the complete returns would bring victory to the Democratic candidate.

Republicans of the Fifty-Fifth District (Moreau and Sangamon counties) claimed the election of R. L. Catron of Springfield by approximately 500 votes over Luther Park, Democrat. Eighty six of the ninety nine precincts in Sangamon gave Catron a lead of 271. With an extremely tight vote in Moreau county reports from Jacksonville showed that Catron was leading by a ratio of about two to one.

Pinnell Claims Edgar County
Paris, Ill., Jan. 23.—Brent H. Pinnell, Republican, carried Edgar county today in the special election for delegate to the constitutional convention in the twenty second district. In a light vote, he is leading O. Collem, Democrat, about 3 to 2.

Carey Wins Easily.
Kankakee, Ill., Jan. 23.—C. D. Carey, Republican, carried Kankakee county by a vote of 2,685 to 163 over James H. Mallaney, Democrat, in the election today to elect a delegate to the constitutional convention from the twentieth senatorial district. This is Governor Len Small's district. Returns from Froquois and Grundy counties indicate better than two to one for Carey.

Results from Chicago District
Chicago, Jan. 23.—Unofficial returns indicated that George W. Tebbens, Republican and Stanley Adamkiewicz, Democrat, were elected constitutional convention delegates from second and twenty seventh districts respectively in today's election. Both districts are in Chicago.

Tebbens won by approximately a 2 to 1 vote while Adamkiewicz' majority was even larger.

BOARD APPROVES PLAN OF LASKER

(By The Associated Press)
WASHINGTON, Jan. 23.—The shipping board today approved Chairman Lasker's plan for subsidizing development of a privately owned American merchant marine and it will be presented tomorrow to President Harding. It was announced. The plan is expected to form the basis of a message to congress early in February by the president dealing with the merchant marine.

The subsidy plan, it was explained today, provides for placing a limit of ship operations cost and for direct payments only when reasonable profits have not been realized.

ISSUE CALL FOR CONFERENCE ON SOLDIER BONUS

Immediate Action Demanded by Group of Members

(By The Associated Press)
WASHINGTON, Jan. 23.—Call for a caucus Thursday night of Republican members of the house on the soldier bonus question was issued today. Immediate action on an adjusted compensation bill has been demanded by a group of members who were in the military service during the war.

At the Thursday night conference they plan to offer a resolution instructing the ways and means committee to proceed at once to the drafting of a bonus measure. The resolution also will provide that when reported to the house, the measure is to be the continuing business until passed.

House leaders said no effort would be made at the caucus to instruct the ways and means committee as to how it should provide for the raising of necessary revenue.

Data upon possible new methods of taxation with which to raise funds for a bonus has been prepared by the treasury department it was said for the information of congress.

Officials of the treasury said, however, that the department would await request for such information before transmitting it to congress. At the same time it was said that the treasury's position with regard to the advisability of a bonus for veterans of the world war was unchanged by the enactment of compensation legislation under existing conditions, being viewed with disfavor.

Must Provide Tax.
In the event a bonus bill is enacted treasury officials said, some tax would have to be provided to take care of it.

In the opinion of the treasury high officials said it would cost more to raise the money for a soldier bonus from the sale of bonds based on the debts of the allied nations than it would to float the country's own obligations.

Data compiled by the treasury for the information of congress was understood to cover various fields of possible taxation without, however, considering a sales tax as a practical solution of the problem of getting money to pay a bonus.

The treasury it was added, considers as advisable and has already suggested a tax of two cents on all bank checks which is estimated would produce a revenue of $50,000,000 a year while further revenue might be obtained from increasing taxes in negotiable instruments.

According to the treasury's estimates approximately $80,000,000 a year could be obtained from a tax on gasoline levied at three cents a gallon.

Increase in the postage through use of three cent stamps, it was thought, would produce approximately $70,000,000 a year.

On the basis of the pending McCumber bill, the treasury estimated that it would be necessary to provide approximately $800,000,000 in the first two years after the enactment of compensation.

UTILITY TYPE OF SEED CORN SHOWS BETTER RESULTS

Out Yields Average Farmer
Seed Corn, Report Says

(By The Associated Press)
URBANA, Ill., Jan. 23.—The utility type of seed corn outyielded the average farmer seed corn by 35.8 to 79.4 per cent on marketable corn and 10.50 to 17 to 22 per cent on total yield in tests conducted on experimental plots at Bloomington, Ill., by the United States department of agriculture, Benjamin Koehler, assistant pathologist, said at the corn growers and stockmen's convention here today.

The difference in amount of marketable corn, which is very striking, Mr. Koehler said, "is due partly to corn ear worm injury. The worms attacked the utility type of corn nearly as much as the disease susceptible types, but very little and often no mold rots followed the worm injury in the utility type so that the ears were still fit for market."

"In general, the same results held true at the Illinois Agricultural Experiment station plots and 22 county experiment plots in Illinois."

Of 120 tests of different strains of corn grown during three years by M. L. Mosher, farm adviser, of Woodford county, the highest yields all proved to be of the utility type, Mr. Koehler said. A large number of farmers have selected their seed according to the new score card during the past season and there will be a much larger number during the coming season, he said.

CONFERENCE FOR FARMERS RELIEF OPENED YESTERDAY

President Harding Delivers the Opening Address—All the Speakers Stress Immediate Relief in the Present Crisis—W. J. Bryan Says the Conference is An Important One

(By The Associated Press)
WASHINGTON, Jan. 23.—Immediate relief must be given farmers in the present agricultural crisis, delegates to the National Agriculture Conference which convened here today were told by speakers representing every phase of its industry. President Harding, who opened the conference with an address, Secretary Wallace, farmers and representatives of industries dependent on agriculture emphasized the seriousness of the situation and suggested remedies.

Remedial measures as outlined by the president included more adequate financial facilities, especially working capital for the farmer on long time loans to provide for his turnover; extension of the co-operative marketing, buying and loan associations of farmers, development of waterway transportation and power possibilities, more efficient machinery for collecting and distributing market information, including the demand and consumption outlook; development of the St. Lawrence-Great Lakes waterway project and assurance to agriculture of equality of opportunity with all other industries.

Demand for reduction of freight rates was voiced generally by the farmers and a reduction in retail prices also was suggested as a necessary step to start increased consumption of farm products. Depression in agriculture which was declared to be general in the United States by speakers from five leading farm regions is reflected in industries intimately connected with and dependent on a prosperous agriculture it was asserted by representatives of the milling, packing, fertilizer and implement industries. Each of the latter pledged full cooperation with agriculture in any effort looking to restoration of normal conditions.

Secretary Wallace as head of the department of agriculture, outlined the purpose of the conference after president Harding had delivered his address and representative Anderson of Minnesota was then made permanent chairman, while twelve major committees were appointed to study various problems with the view of submitting recommendations.

The delegates and their families tonight were guests of President and Mrs. Harding at a reception at the white house.

William J. Bryan who was in the audience, was called to the platform and described the conference as one of the most important held in this country in a long time.

Agriculture he said, was in the worst condition in thirty years and he could not see how there could be any general prosperity until the condition of the farmer was improved.

Praising the agriculture bloc, he said it was different from other blocs, because its members had "acted openly and the others acted secretly."

The situation of the various great farming sections of the United States were described by their representatives and the effects of the depressed agricultural conditions on the allied industries was discussed during the afternoon. John H. Hogan of North Dakota speaking for the wheat belt; A. Sykes of Iowa for the corn belt; James W. Morton of Georgia, for the cotton belt; H. Bixbe, of California, for the livestock producers, and E. B. Cornwall of Vermont, for the northeastern agriculturists, made suggestions for remedial measures, most of them touching on reduction of freight rates and retail prices.

Many Dublin traders today resumed the selling of Belfast goods which had lain in their stocks since the boycott was imposed. In some cases however, the Republican police prevented traders from selling on the ground that in the past they had sought to evade the prohibition and now must obtain permits.

It has been pretty clearly recognized all along by lawyers that the new government cannot during the transition period depend on technical legal powers, but must depend on the willingness of the people to obey it. It has been suggested that later all its proceedings can be validated in an act of indemnity.

IRISH MINISTERS NOW INSTALLED IN DUBLIN CITY HALL

Provisional Government is Being Carried on There

(By The Associated Press)
DUBLIN, Jan. 23.—The new Irish ministers are now installed in offices in the city hall. They are there in the capacity of a provisional government but Mansion House continues the headquarters of the "Irish Republic." Arthur Griffith, president of the Dail Eireann has his offices there. Although he has no post in the provisional government, he is keeping in close touch with all its activities. He spent some time today in the city hall.

Armed sentries of the Irish Republican army were on duty outside the city hall today when members of the provisional government entered officially to occupy the premises. Michael Collins head of the provisional government was one of the first to arrive. Shortly afterward, Mr. Griffith entered and chatted for some time with Mr. Collins and the other ministers. The new government is being sharply pursued in the newspapers, the Irish Republic, of which Austin Stack is the principal director and editor and Liam Melows and Edskins Children are inspiring spirits.

In its issue tomorrow the Irish Republic will discuss the legal position of the new government after handing over the powers at Dublin Castle. It will argue that unless the ministers have been given the powers provided for in the home rule act of 1820 their whole status is illegal.

It has been pretty clearly recognized all along by lawyers that the new government cannot during the transition period depend on technical legal powers, but must depend on the willingness of the people to obey it. It has been suggested that later all its proceedings can be validated in an act of indemnity.

SENATOR MCCORMICK MAKES EUROPE TAKE NOTICE

No one can read the text of the letter Senator McCormick sent to the French press without the feeling that the Illinois senator has not studied the international situation in vain. Senator McCormick introduced a measure a few days ago asking that the European nations indebted to the United States be asked to make statements as to their financial situation. The measure created something of a furore in Europe, with some sharp resulting criticism from some of the French and Belgian papers.

Now Senator McCormick in a remarkably clear cut statement, asks why the debtor nations have taken exception to his proposal, and then goes on to show that the information he has asked for the United States is the very thing that the European nations need themselves. The McCormick statement makes it clear that until the European nations get their expenditures for armies, internal improvements and various obligations into the proper business relationship that the hoped for stable international business situation cannot come to pass. The open letter is a remarkable document, and affords proof of Senator McCormick's earnest and masterful delving into serious international problems.

THE UNDERWEIGHT SCHOOL CHILDREN.

Investigations made in Jacksonville from time to time show a great many underweight and under-nourished children in the schools. That this is not a local condition is indicated in the following from the Quincy Herald:

"The unusual facts which have been brought out by the survey made by the Red Cross health nurse in Adams county concerning the undernourishment of school children of school age are borne out by investigations made in the city of Pittsburgh to determine whether children, even of better class families, eat the right kind of food to properly nourish them. Evidently the children eat enough but official statistics just compiled by the Pittsburgh board of education from four of the big grade schools in the East End section, where the average family is in comfortable to wealthy circumstances, show that 10 to 15 per cent of the children of these schools are under-nourished. City health physicians are seeking the cause."

"Dr. H. B. Burns, director of the department of public hygiene and one of the city's most prominent physicians, gives out the official figures resulting from the investigation made under his direction."

"In the Friendship School 621 pupils were examined, 322 boys and 299 girls and 108, or 17 per cent, were found to be 10 to 15 per cent under weight for their ages and height, according to United States standard tables. In the Liberty school, where 591 were examined, 312 boys and 279 girls, 101, or 17 per cent, were under normal. In the Shakespeare school 421 girls, and 74, or 17 per cent, were found to be under normal, and in the Osceola school where 475 were examined, 250 boys and 225 girls, 95 or 20 per cent were found under weight."

"The under-weight girls, in each instance outnumbered the boys and the tests were taken of pupils from the first to eighth grades, the elementary school limits. The United States health standard tables used indicate a child of five years, thirty-nine to forty-six inches tall, should weigh thirty-four to forty-eight pounds."

FUNERAL OF MRS. JOHN HOLT AT WINCHESTER

Funeral of Former Resident Was One of Largest Ever Held at Christian Church—Edward Andell Passed Away—Other Winchester News.

WINCHESTER, Jan. 23.—The funeral of the late Mrs. John Holt was held at 1 o'clock Sunday afternoon from the Christian church. It was one of the largest funerals ever held in the church, the deceased being so well known in the community. The choir sang as the opening number, "Sometime We'll Understand." The scripture lesson, obituary and prayer were by Rev. W. R. Johnson.

A solo, "Face to Face," was then sung by Mrs. Demerath, after which Rev. Frank Crabtree delivered the funeral discourse. The closing number by the choir was "Jesus Saviour Pilot Me." The Royal Neighbors lodge of Winchester, of which the deceased was a member, and also the lodge from Alsey, where Mrs. Holt had resided for the past few years, attended the services in a body. The many beautiful flowers were in charge of Misses Jen Stewart, Blanche and Nell Smith, Jen Dugan, Percie Mitchell and Edith Montgomery.

Interment was in the Winchester cemetery, the bearers being Joseph Montgomery, Edward Smith, David Hainsforth, Richard Ryan, W. S. Roosa, P. D. Smith and Warren Sweet.

Death of Edward L. Andell. Edward Leach Andell, familiarly known as "Eddie" Andell, passed away at the home of his parents six miles east of town at 8 o'clock Sunday night, after an illness of short duration. His death is the more sad as his wife passed away just about a year ago, leaving three small children, Florence, Dorothy and Robert. Andell. The deceased is survived by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Andell, three sisters, Mrs. Irwin Rimbey, Mrs. Delmar Kitzelman, and Mrs. Albert Brown.

Mr. Andell was a young man of good habits and a faithful member of the Christian church. With his children he attended the first week of the revival services now in progress at the Winchester church. He had enjoyed good health for some time but his death came as a shock to his friends.

Funeral services will be held at 2 o'clock Tuesday afternoon from the Christian church.

Revival Notes.

Services were held Sunday morning at the various churches and in the afternoon all joined in a mass meeting at the Methodist church. At this time Dr. E. E. Violette delivered an sermon on the theme, "In Palestine from the Foot of the Tomb." Mrs. Allan McCullough sang a solo.

The service Sunday evening was attended by more than 700 persons and at this time Dr. Violette delivered one of the strongest discourses that has ever been heard locally. His subject was "A Night in Ancient Babylon." The large union choir furnished splendid music and a solo was given by Miss Louise Frost.

Monday afternoon there was a mass prayer meeting at 2:30 o'clock and at 3 o'clock Dr. Violette addressed the Woman's club and ladies of the town on, "The Women of the Orient." Monday night the audience was of fair proportions and Dr. Violette discussed, "The Thing Most Needed in Winchester." Miss Louise Miller and Mr. Ratcliff of Jacksonville, sang a duet and the latter also sang a solo. These musical numbers were very much appreciated.

Noonday Luncheon Monday.

Forty-eight men enjoyed a noonday luncheon at Stark's cafe Monday. It was a personal workers meeting in the interest of the revival now in progress here. Rev. Carl Corrie acted as chairman and introduced Dr. Violette, who made a fine talk. The speaker especially emphasized the thought that all should be personal workers in the cause of Christ.

The menu which was served was one which all enjoyed and included oyster soup, braised ox joint a la Creole, roast pork, mashed potatoes, gravy, breaded tomatoes, pickled beets, compote of apple, tea, coffee, milk.

SPECIAL SERMON AT WOODSON CHURCH

Rev. L. H. Fuller Delivers Second in Series of Special Sermons Sunday Evening—Other Woodson News.

WOODSON, Jan. 23.—Rev. L. H. Fuller delivered the second in a series of sermons at the Christian church Sunday night, when his theme was "Why do not more men and boys attend Sunday school and church?" The sermon was based upon the answers given by professional and business men to the question. The pastor read these answers and then delivered his discourse, which was of a highly instructive and interesting character. Rev. Mr. Fuller is a powerful and logical speaker and holds the attention of his audience from the beginning to the end.

The special sermons are being enjoyed by large audiences and should be heard by all who desire to be enlightened and entertained. Next Sunday night will be the third in the series and the subject will be, "In view of the present methods of business do you think a man can live a consistent Christian and be a success in business?"

A special feature of the service Sunday night was a duet by Misses Maurine and Eloise Self, "I'll Prepare a Place for You."

HAYNES SAYS THE PRESENT BRAND OF WHISKY IS POISON

Only Two Per Cent is Free From Poisonous Fusel Oil

(By The Associated Press) NEW YORK, Jan. 23.—Asserting that only two percent of the "vile stuff" being seized by prohibition agents is found to be free from poisonous fusel oil, Roy M. Haynes, national director of prohibition enforcement today told 500 New York pastors that he was "not surprised" at the number of pre-holiday alcoholics under treatment in New York hospitals. Today it is dangerous to violate the law in the purchase of the stuff and it is especially dangerous to drink stuff after it is purchased, Director Haynes said. A Director Haynes insisted that prohibition is being more and more rigidly enforced, despite what he characterized as an "insidious, clever, unpatriotic, false wet propaganda, particularly in the large metropolitan centers that has as its abject the delusion of the American people into belief that the prohibition law is a failure, that it is unpopular, that it was slipped over on them, that it is not being enforced and that it can't be enforced." He asserted there are thirty paid organizations in existence striving night and day to bring about the impossible—the repeal of the eighteenth amendment. The speaker called upon the clergy to uphold him saying that prohibition was sponsored by the churchgoers and its enforcement should have their support. "I make bold to make this statement," he said "that there never was a law enacted in any civilized country as drastic as this law, which has been so early and so successfully enforced." Optimism for prohibition enforcement also was expressed by William Anderson, of the Anti-Saloon League, who followed Mr. Haynes with a statement that "a year ago crooks, both officials and unofficial were not only partners with bootleggers but were getting away with it. Today many guilty men both officials and others are in the federal penitentiary and others are on their way."

SPENDS THE DAY IN DISCUSSION OF EDUCATION

Irish Congress Talks of the Spread of Culture Abroad

(By The Associated Press) PARIS, Jan. 23.—The world Irish congress in the absence of any concrete question on its program spent the first day's session today in academic discussion of education and the spread of Irish culture abroad. Eamon DeValera made a brief appearance on the platform this afternoon, taking occasion to invite rich Irishmen in foreign countries to endow professorships in universities and create scholarships for children of the Irish race to complete their education in Ireland. The allowances of the congress crystallized and got to work on some plans was explained by its organizers as due to the fact that the meeting was planned before Ireland became a free state so that naturally, the program had to be radically altered. The idea of Mr. DeValera and other leaders is to make use of the existing Irish organization in every country to form a world league thru which to work for the spread of Irish culture, to educate Irish descendants, everywhere in Irish history and help in Ireland's economic interests. Mr. DeValera asked the delegates from every nation to take pattern after the United States where he said the Irish language was still kept alive. W. E. Yeats, the Irish poet, preceded Mr. DeValera with an address on Irish literature.

ASKS HELP FOR DISABLED VETERANS

(By The Associated Press) PITTSBURGH, Jan. 23.—Hansford MacNider, National Commander of the American Legion addressing former service men here tonight asked veterans who were in a position to do so to help those who had been maimed or were impaired in the war. "The American Legion, he said, "intends to see that every man gets a square deal." However, plans have been initiated whereby the uninjured members of the organization can help the disabled men, MacNider declared. "We suggest," he said, "that every man that can afford it and there must be many thousands, to turn over to the Legion's rotating fund, all he can spare, to go to the help of disabled men while we are battling our way thru all this red tape that clogs the machinery of justice. "We don't understand the workings of the present Veterans' Bureau," he concluded, "but we are going to cooperate with it and fight it out for the benefit of the unfortunate service man."

PEORIA, Ill., Jan. 23.—Russell Crawford, 6-years old son of Robert Crawford, 30, was strangled to death by a penny toy balloon today at his home. The lad had been called a "sissy" by a playmate because he was afraid at first to blow up the balloon because of the noise it would make when the air was released. A few minutes after being teased the boy was found on the floor gasping for breath. A doctor was called, but was unable to remove the balloon before death resulted.

Wife Kills Husband and His Stenographer in Philadelphia

(By The Associated Press) PHILADELPHIA, Jan. 23.—In a crumpled page in the diary of Oscar Rosier, advertising man, whose widow today was held for a coroner's inquest on a charge of having slain Rosier and his stenographer Saturday in his private office, were several lines addressed "to Jerry from O. R."

The lines were: "The kiss complete, the union of souls, heart to heart, hand in hand what does language matter, a sympathetic silence." "Jerry."

According to police who examined Rosier's effects, including the diary, was the nickname of Miss Geraldine Rickett, Rosier's stenographer. The diary was the same in which Rosier, a few minutes before he died signed a will disbequeing his wife Mrs. Catherine Rosier, and her infant of a few months and left all his property to his 3 year old son by a former marriage and to Rosier's brother, Arthur. Attorneys for Mrs. Rosier said today they would contest the filing of the will for probate.

Mrs. Rosier's chief concern today appeared to be her baby, Richard. After she was held with out hall for a coroner's inquest, she asked Magistrate Renshaw to be permitted to take the baby with her to her cell. The request was denied. A request that she be permitted to see her husband's body also was denied.

It developed at the hearing that when Mrs. Rosier went to her husband's office Saturday afternoon she carried a small vial of poison. "This would indicate," said John K. Scott, her attorney, "that Mrs. Rosier intended to kill herself and that it was only under the emotional derangement of the moment that she shot and killed her husband and his companion."

WORKS FOR CHILD MUST KEEP WELL

Mothers in a Like Situation Should Read This Letter
from Mrs. Enrico

Chicago, Illinois.—"I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound for a serious trouble. I had tried doctors and all said the same—an operation. At first I only felt the pain on my left side, but later I seemed to feel it on both sides. I am a power sewing machine operator and have a little girl to support. I work in a tailor shop and that kind of work has been very slack this year and I am home part of the time. I do not like to take any chances, so I consulted my friends, and one day said, 'Take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, so I did. I have felt better ever since and am in good enough health to go to work. I recommend this Vegetable Compound and Sanguina Wash to all.'—Mrs. MARY ENRICO, 459 N. Carpenter St., Chicago. When the mother is obliged to support her children and good health is necessary, Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is just the medicine you can depend upon. It is a medicine for women's ailments and the relief it brought Mrs. Enrico it may bring to you.

FACTS ABOUT EUROPE GIVEN IN ADDRESS

Dr. Holt of Boston, Made Informing Address at Congregational Church on Economic Conditions Overseas.

"The Tragedy of Central Europe" as discussed by Dr. Arthur E. Holt of Boston, at the Forum of the Congregational church Sunday night, proved a most interesting theme. Dr. Holt spent four months the past year in an intimate study of European conditions and so was able to speak from first hand information.

As one great barrier to the restoration of something like normal conditions mentioned, Dr. Holt referred to the deep-seated hatreds. It is going to take in his view, a long period of education to stifle those feelings. He mentioned too some of the re-districting which has come about as a result of the war as an impediment to progress and a return to normal. The speaker referred to several ridiculous situations to give emphasis to this point.

He mentioned one small city where the fire department was accustomed to look out for alarms in another small city a little farther up on the mountain side. While Dr. Holt and his associates were there an alarm of fire came from the second city mentioned and the fire department started promptly on its brief journey, forgetting that they must cross an international boundary and that passports would be necessary. By the time the passports could be secured and the department proceeded the building had been destroyed.

The new emphasis placed upon nationality has also erected trade barriers which are of very definite disadvantage. Some areas with factories are cut off by these international boundaries from the sources of raw materials and tariffs have been placed so high that the districts with the materials cannot find a market for them, and the factories cannot afford to pay the prices asked. So stagnation has resulted.

Dr. Holt said that in instances that he had observed the people instead of exercising the right of self-determination so that better co-operation could follow as outlined at the Versailles conference, had followed the policy of self-determination without the co-operation. As a remedy for war Dr. Holt said there must be a long period of education. The blotting out of selfishness and hatred. The last war, he said, began in the thoughts and hatreds of the Kaiser and his colleagues many years before the war became a fact. So he declared that no mere league or association of nations can put an end to wars and to make safety sure there must come about some feeling to offset the ill will, hatred and distrust.

It was a most interesting address and made the more so by the period of questions and answers which came at the close.

PAGEANT PRESENTED WITH FINE EFFECT

"City Beautiful" Witnessed By Large Audience at Westminster Church—Short Sermon By Dr. Smith on Appropriate Theme.

The service at Westminster church Sunday night attracted a very large audience. The pageant "The City Beautiful" was presented followed by a brief sermon by the pastor, Dr. Thomas Smith, who made an earnest plea for a more general devotion to the work of Westminster church and the other churches of Jacksonville.

The three Christian Endeavor societies co-operated in the presentation of "The City Beautiful" and this pageant, with its inspirational theme and music and its effective staging proved beautiful indeed.

Dr. Smith's sermon fitted perfectly with the thought of the pageant and gave new emphasis to the place which the church should occupy in the community and the possibilities for great good that could be found in an earnest, co-operative effort on the part of the church people of Jacksonville.

The committee on property and costumes had much to do with the success of the evening's program and included in its membership Miss Eleanor Moore, Miss Adelaide McCune, Mrs. W. C. Bradish, Mrs. Thomas Smith, Mr. and Mrs. George C. Guthrie and Mr. and Mrs. Stanley J. Davis. Frank Collins was at the organ and Miss Louise Miller assisted with the musical program.

The leading musical part in "The City Beautiful" was carried with especial success by Miss Katherine Barr. All members of the cast acquitted themselves with great credit. The beauty of the pageant was greatly increased by the use of the special lighting possible from the motion picture machine, operated by C. W. Taylor.

LIGHT VOTE CAST IN MONDAY ELECTION

Returns From Morgan and Sangamon Counties Indicate B. L. Catron Elected Member of the Constitutional Convention.

That there would be very little interest in Monday's election when member of the constitutional convention was chosen from this district, was known in advance. The figures bear this statement out, for the vote in the 28 precincts from which returns were received last night totaled 465. Of this number 298 were cast for B. L. Catron, the Republican candidate, and 167 for Luther Park, the Democratic candidate. Returns from Sangamon county, 75 precincts out of 99, gave Catron 897 and Park 598. It is accounted reasonably certain that Mr. Catron has been elected to succeed the late Clinton L. Conkling.

The canvass of the vote in Morgan county will be made today by the board which County Clerk Riggs has constituted for the work.

THE BAKING POWDER QUESTION SOLVED

Most housewives proclaim that the baking powder question was solved for them the moment they used the spoonful of Calumet. After no doubt remained, no hoping no searching for a perfect baker—no wondering if baking would "turn out all right."

ALUMET
KING POWDER

solved the question because in these thirty years it has failed to produce wholesome and appetizing foods at an excessive cost. It is as pure as any baking powder made.
Calumet is more economical than other brands selling for less because its quality is the highest—no losses from spoiled breads.
Calumet once—that's enough to prove to you that it's the best.

Each can of Calumet contains full amount of baking powder. Some baking powders come in 2 oz. cans instead of 16 oz. cans. Be

GET MORE EGGS
THIS WINTER—MAKE YOUR HENS FOOT
YOUR HOUSEHOLD EXPENSES

Your hens will follow their animal nature and refuse to lay eggs during the winter if you do not feed them a Tonic that will tone up their dormant egg organs and condition their system so that they will be able to lay more eggs.
A laying hen needs good health, good appetite and digestion.
Feed your hens

F.W. McNess' POULTRY TONIC

It gives the hen an appetite and good digestion. It contains Tonics that tone up the dormant egg organs—then that makes red blood and a red comb. It starts your pullets and hens to laying and it keeps them laying. F. W. McNess' Poultry Tonic will make four hens lay more eggs while prices are high.
Don't let feeding your hens F. W. McNess' Poultry Tonic any longer—it will tone up the egg organs, which means more eggs.
F. W. McNess' Poultry Tonic comes in 4 lb. packages 5 and 30 lb. pails and 100 lb. drums. Sent to anyone upon request C. O. D.

BLUFFS TONIGHT

Fast Independent Teams Will Clash at Liberty Hall—Curtain Raiser Between K. C. Reserves and Illinois Reserves.

Basketball fans are offered a double attraction for one admission at Liberty hall tonight when the Knights of Columbus and Bluffs Independents clash and the Knights Reserves will play Coach Harmon's Illinois College Reserves.

The Knights of Columbus and Bluffs Independents have been trying to get together for some time, but so far have been unable to do so. The breaking down of the heating plant at Liberty hall being one of the reasons for postponement.

The Knights have been working hard for the game and hope to put it on the right side of the ledger.
The Reserves also will try to make a good showing against the Illinois Reserves but will find the going rather tough as Coach Harmon's men work out every week day with the regulars.

The curtain raiser will start at 7:15 o'clock and the regular game at 8:15 o'clock. The Knights hope to have a good crowd out as the attendance has

Cold often results. Have Dr.
Bell's Pine-Tar-Honey on hand

loosens that hard packed phlegm, eases breathing, ridges of hoarseness, strained coughing and irritation in the throat, resulting in restful nights. Very pleasant to take. Good for all the family, too. All druggists, 20c.

HIGH SCHOOL TONIGHT

The second picture "Jes Call Me Jim." of the five to be shown at the High School will be shown this evening. This is a virile story of the woods, starring Will Rogers, and is full of action. These entertainments are being well attended a fact shows the desire the students have to number the moving picture machines in the school equipment. The showing will start promptly at 7:30, thus giving all children time to get home at a reasonable hour.

A brief assembly was held yesterday morning to announce some changes in the daily schedule.
Principal Shafer also made some remarks on the conduct in the halls.

An assembly will be held this morning, during which Rev. W. E.
Spoonts of Northminster church, will address the students.

OBITUARY.

William D. Henry, aged citizen of Woodson, died suddenly Saturday evening, Jan. 14, about ten o'clock at his home, one and one half miles south of Woodson. Had he lived until the 28th day of the coming February he would have reached the 84th year of his earthly life.

Mr. Henry is survived by his son, Jesse and wife, and two grand-children, Mrs. Amos Mc-Curley, and Jesse B. Henry, Jr.
3 grand-children, William, Louise and Amos McCurley, Jr., also by two brothers and one sister, John R. Henry, Samuel W. Henry and Mrs. Lucy B. Grunder.

Mr. Henry's wife passed away 29 years ago, since which time he has lived with his son, Jesse, on his farm, near Woodson. He has practically lived all his life in Morgan Co. He served as a soldier in the civil war, entering as a private and attained the office and rank of sergeant of his company.

Mr. Henry was a member of the Christian church at Woodson being converted at an Evangelistic meeting held by Elders Harrison, Osborne and E. G. Rice in the school house at Woodson, Ill., in the year of 1867. He was a charter member of the present church, and served as an elder for several years and later as trustee of the same. He was a member of the Masonic Lodge No.
432, A. F. & A. M. of Murrayville, Ill., being a charter member of that lodge in which he retained membership until called by death.
Mr. Henry also held the office of township school trustee and for 30 years served as judge on the election board for county, state and national elections. He was an humble Christian, a just and upright Mason, an honorable, faithful, loyal citizen. A patriotic soldier, and a man of sterling integrity, whose advice and council was sought and heeded. He was a peacemaker, and had the esteem of all who knew him.

While his earthly life is done, his influence and personality will long remain as a benediction to influence and guide the community in which he has lived so long.
With such a record may we not confidently say a Christian citizen has passed on to his eternal reward.

Thursday Will be Big Day of

The free cooking school being conducted by the Courier, with Miss Jessie Hinkley in charge, will start today. Miss Hinkley first lectures on subject relative to cooking, and then demon-

The schedule for the week follows:
Tuesday—"The Key to Success in Cooking," with mocha cake with mocha icing, white cake

conut fluff cake for demonstra-

Wednesday—"Use and Abuse of Fats," with doughnuts, corn fritters and potato chips for demonstrations.

Thursday will be the big day of the week. The lecture will be on "Planning the Meals for the Family." A balanced meal will be prepared and served to the class. Pastry baskets will be made instead of pie.

Friday—"Salads and their Place in the Diet" with unusual salad dressings. Suggestions will also be made for sandwiches be made out.

Red Cross service flags can be obtained from the headquarters in the public library, by any member of the organization.

sired.

Can You See
Your Ribs?

"It wasn't that I wanted to get fat—I just wanted to put on about 8 pounds more flesh, then I'd be just right. I've nibbled at diets, forced big meals, I've haunted health foods, been to fine clinics, gaudy pills, but nothing, olive oil, emulsions, swallowed digestion aids, and a score of other 'wonder drugs.' Finally, it dawned on me. 'Now if these things were building up the new red blood cells I needed, I took S. S. S., the greatest refreshing blood-builder, firm-flesh producer, blood-cleanser known. I put on 7 pounds in a month and my nerves, instead of strings feel like wires.
S. S. S. has the world beat.'" S. S. S. is guaranteed purely vegetable in its medicated ingredients. It has produced amazing results in building up run-down, thin-faced, debilitated men, and in making women of all ages more plump and beautiful, and younger looking.
S. S. S. is sold at all drug stores, in two sizes.
The larger size is the more economical.

vaudeville and comic opera tunes, old familiar melodies
—that's the music most people really want and enjoy.
Americans are a light-hearted, laughter-loving people.
They refuse to take their amusements too seriously.
Because Columbia has always led in up-to-the-minute music, all the up-and-coming popular artists

STOCK MARKET HAS IRREGULAR SESSION

By Associated Press.

NEW YORK, Jan. 23.—Stock market prices today reflected the increasing confusion of sentiment among traders resulting from last week's sensational movement of selected issues.

Representative stocks of the railway and industrial types were irregular when not altogether ignored. Speculative stocks and motors continued to rise and fall within a radius of 2 to almost 10 points.

Gulf States Steel, in which competitive buying seemed to be resumed, rose almost 9 points after its hesitant opening and closed at a net gain of 5 1/2.

Republic Steel, Virginia Iron, Coal & Coke, a few of the minor motor specialties and shipings and express company shares included downward.

Although the supply of money seemed in excess of demand, call loans rose from 5 to 5 1/2 per cent in the final dealings. Offerings of time money were less liberal.

The foreign exchange rate on London was steady, but quotations on all the other countries, as well as Germany and Holland were lower.

Liberty issues were influenced by future realizing for profit. Total sales (par value) aggregated $16,350,000.

COUNCIL PREPARES FOR NEXT ELECTION

Primary to be Held March 14th—New Garbage Ordinance Presented—Improvement Board Reports Plan For Paving On Morton Avenue.

The tax levy ordinance was introduced at the meeting of the city council Monday night, levying taxes for general corporate purposes and expenses for the fiscal year of 1922. Another ordinance given first reading was that calling the primary election for Tuesday, March 14th. One alderman is to be elected in each of the four wards.

The roll call showed Mayor Crabtree, Clerk J. E. Scott and the following aldermen present: Aldermen McGinnis, Flynn, Longergun, Ehnie, Chapin, Williamson and Rowe.

The public improvement committee thru Alderman Longergun asked for further time before making report on the discussion of boulevard lighting on East State street. The tax levy ordinance duly sets forth that the annual appropriation ordinance has been passed and given legal publication, and shows that total amount of appropriations for corporate purposes and expenses is $229,000. The various sums have already been published in detail.

The election ordinance provides that the polling places shall be the same as used at the last election.

New Garbage Ordinance.

An ordinance was also introduced purposing to define garbage and providing for a new system of handling city garbage. The ordinance was drawn by City Attorney Bellatti and was read and discussed. Some slight changes were made and the final reading will be next Monday. The ordinance provides that bids shall be received for handling the city's refuse matter and that bids shall be made by wards. The bidder is expected to give bond and the payments for services are so arranged that about 10 percent of the amount of the bid will be held back as guaranteed that the proper service will be rendered. The ordinance was patterned after ordinances in effect in some other cities where the plan of handling the garbage work by contract has proven very satisfactory.

The Morton Road Project.

Mayor Crabtree made an informal report of a meeting of the board of local improvements with reference to Morton avenue paving. The hearing was held Monday afternoon with Miss Stacy, Miss Heffernan, Mrs. Swank and A. T. Harrison, four of the five property owners, present. The Get Gas Company is the fifth property owner along the portion of the roadway where pavement is to be laid. It was the suggestion of property owners that if possible the improvement be handled without the expense of going thru the ordinary court procedure. However, City Attorney Bellatti is of the opinion that there are certain obstacles to such a procedure. The estimate of City Engineer Henderson for the work is $4600 and the property owners ask that they be assessed 15 percent of the cost, the city to pay the remainder.

It was understood all along that the greater part of the expense for this particular piece of pavement should be paid from general taxation, because the benefits to the abutting property are comparatively small. The pavement will be 1000 feet in length and it is proposed to have that west of the railroad bridge 20 feet wide and the portion east of the railroad bridge 18 feet wide.

TO PRESENT CITY PROBLEMS FOR REVIEW

Illinois Municipal League Will Hold Eighth Annual Convention at University of Illinois.

The eighth annual convention of the Illinois Municipal League is to be held at the University of Illinois Wednesday and Thursday of this week. Mayors, commissioners, aldermen and other city and village officers are being especially urged to attend. The league during its comparatively short existence, has proved its value in many ways. One plan, it is hoped, can be worked out at this convention, is for an all time secretary, whose duties will include the filing at the university of a great deal of subject matter of interest to cities. The files would then be available to all the cities of the state for reference purposes.

Mayor H. P. Pearsons of Evanston, is the president and will give his annual address Wednesday afternoon, following the address of welcome by President David Kinley of the University of Chicago.

At the Thursday morning session one of the addresses will be by Mayor E. E. Crabtree of this city, whose assigned theme is "A Legislative Program for the Illinois Municipal League." Subjects of great public interest will be discussed by men prominently identified with municipal affairs.

"The Problem of Unemployment and its Solution," will be considered by Col. Woods, former police commissioner of New York City; Hon. D. F. Wilcox, of New York, public utility and franchise expert, will discuss, "The Public Utility and Municipal Policy." Some special interest will attach to the presentation of "Dayton's Experiment Under Home Rule Constitution," by John B. Harshman, city attorney of Dayton.

Mayor M. D. Smith of Dixon, will present the subject, "Home Rule and the Downstate Cities of Illinois." Still other subjects of general worth and interest will be considered.
